DEMONS WANT OUR SOULS

The most powerful weapon of all against this evil is in the music, those frequencies which are the holy water of this Earthorcism battle. SaHeaven and the other StarChilds are on the front-line of this battle throughout their lives on earth, their stories, and other realms, times and places.

As a team, they will unlock and cipher the Frequency codes and set off the series of vibrations that will end evil from earth and beyond. A force so powerful that it will cast all of the demons out. They will be forced through the deepest darkest portal, like a black hole in the darkest space in the cosmos, to their final destination. The endless depths of purgatory.

About Episode I The Fight of The Unborn

Episode 1 will begin with the story of Dianne, SaHeavens mother, also a StarChild. It takes place in Brusly, Louisiana which set the foundation to the entire story. The family, their powers, Alien contacts, music, voodoo doctors, the attack on Diane and her sisters and cousins, known throughout town as the Bartney Girls. Attacked by the Bully Bitches on RiverRoad who were known to be possessed by the demon jumpers.

On that beautiful clear day, as Dianne walked home from school with her sister and cousins singing beautiful tones that resonated through the homes and the soul of the community. All would step outside to see the Bartney girls. After a moment something strange happened. The onlookers all noticed another group of girls rough looking and appeared from the mist of the air. They begin fiercely walking towards the Bartney Girls. In slow motion, the onlookers screamed in fear, warning the Bartney girls that the Bully-Bitches were going to attack them

That is what they did! During the brawl Dianne notices their evil leader slowly choking her cousin to death while she looks at Diane with a sliver of her long black 12 inch snake tongue. A scream from Dianne resonated through the sky, her vibration turned a clear sunny day into darkness in less than a minute. Suddenly the blue sky was completely hidden by the most ominous black clouds that flashed red lightning the color of blood. This street fight between 2 sets of girls exposed the demon from within The Bartney Girls attackers. During the fight, strange sets of creatures from hell begin to surface from the woods that lie on the water front of the Mississippi River.

DEMON SLAYER

SaHeaven, not yet born, materializes from down the misty dark road. She is seen as a spirit which caused a great silence amongst everyone. As she walk slowly towards the Bully demon-possessed girls, who stand glaring at her, As SaHeaven get's closer the leader quickly makes sudden leap to attack SaHeaven, the others Bully-Bitches let out some gruesome howls in an attempt to summons more Shadow Demons. The leader's long tongue slivers in and out her human mouth. SaHeaven makes a move that sends this demon bitch flying backwards as she continues to morph into something more horrific looking. SaHeaven struck the hell out of her and this demon body extorted while reciting a voodoo curse, then told SaHeaven to watch her baby twin brothers while she expanded her hidden black wings and flew off!

After a few days, Johnny Bartney, Dianne Father, came home one night to see 3 of the Bully Bitches performing a VooDoo ritual unlike any other in front of their home. He chased them off. What happens next will be terrifying. On a beautiful day, the family is playing music in their studio Johnny had built for them. The music is a down home jam session. Suddenly some of the children are seen running and screaming for help. The family dropped their instruments and ran very fast to Diane's home. When they arrived the home was in spiritual turmoil and there was a force trying to keep them out, Dianne was able to use her own force to get in. They were all astounded to see her twin baby brothers were possessed and pressed against the ceiling by an unseen force. Meanwhile, the priest from the family church next door was feeling the evils. He ran to the house but came to the front porch. All inside was locked in. His only way in to help them was to break the front window.

This chaotic event and exorcism is a heart wrenching and terrifying. How it ends will leave the audience in shock and looking forward to the next episode to see what happens next. The witnesses of this event all play an important role in this mystery going forward. This leads to a life story of SaHeaven and her family on one level, while battling evil on another.

ABOUT THE DARK SHADOW DEMON JUMPERS

The shadow demon jumpers are very evil non-human entities that are the soldiers carrying out the Devil's orders. They can crossover into this realm in many ways. The easiest way is through people that are spiritually weak and easily brainwashed by people who are already being controlled by them. Also those who are under the influence of mind altering drugs. Once the demon crossover they can get inside your body and hijack your soul. That is why they are called Jumpers. They are able to jump from one body to the next. Once that happens they are in control of you, your body and mind. The entities can possess a person to do Unthinkable horrific things.

The Jumpers love Earth, because souls are easy to take here. If you think of it like this... if you can imagine flying outside of your physical body and above the earth then look down upon this planet and you can see through the spirit of God or the universe. And look at all the chaos on earth beyond an earthbound mindset and personal views, You would then begin to see and

You can understand the answer to the question " what possessed so many lost humans to commit such horrific acts against other h u m a n s . Why has it become far worse and hate is on the rise just within the last 7 years

The demons bring with them, Hate, hunger for Power, Greed, Lust, Confusion, Lies, deceit, trickery. Everything will seem twisted and backwards. Good is considered bad, Love is hated, truth is called fake, Fake is sold as truth. Wickedness is magnified. Brainwashing The followers of evil. They want our souls. The evil mind is always plotting how to be more evil, just as a loving person of the light is always thinking of others and cleansing the planet for everyone, It becomes clear to your higher self. Some of these Shadow Demons are haunting certain people. usually a Child of the Light. The reasons are a child of a light

The gruesome vile hateful cold demonic shape-shifting entities are in full mode of Satan's dark vengeance and it has now become dangerous. The StarChilds are their greatest threat to evil. So the Shadow demon jumps those who are close to the StarChilds, such as their friends and associates, who are supporting their musical careers

The demons must stop a starchild from creating music which will hold the frequencies that will be their demise. They will use their bodies in an evil way in an attempt to block the StarChilds mission of cleansing the Earth. A mission comes from the light of the universe, the angels of the Chariots.

The demon's quest on earth is from Beyond the 7th Realm of Hell from The Prince of Darkness or the Devil itself. This is at the core of the spiritual warfare that is growing more Epic on Earth today. Everything around the shadow entities are twisted, backwards. Good Deeds are punished bad Deeds are praised hate is magnified murder Rises. Shadow Demon's immense challenge is to try and jump the direct Soul of a starchild. That cannot be done as demons are unable to jump a StarChild. Trying to possess a StarChild is in comparison to trying to force together the opposite magnetic currents going in different directions... ## StarChild of the 7 Realms

SHE WILL FIND THE FREQUENCIES
THAT WILL CAST OUT THE 7 EVILS FROM EARTH

SAHEAVEN IS THE CHOSEN MUSICAL STARCHILD WHO HAS THE POWER TO DELIVER US FROM THE 7 EVILS. THIS IS THE FINAL BATTLE!
THE 7 EVILS OF HELL WANT TO TAKE HER SOUL FOR THEIR ARMY AND TO ERASE HER EXISTENCE.

About The StarChilds

It is within their powers of the light. The StarChilds musical tones within the right frequency, can exercise those demonic forces from Earth forever. The human's that carry such light are not always aware of it. They do not know how to activate it. For those reasons, ET's of the Chariots who come from a far more advanced civilization will help the children of the light reach their full potential. StarChilds will also learn to understand how to activate their powers to fight the very same battle that ET's are fighting themselves. StarChilds must stop the fallen 7 Evils on earth from taking more souls. Since they have already taken over a few who sold their souls in order to become the most powerful leaders on earth. Since the last 5 years the soul-taking has begun moving at a faster rate. The StarChilds must battle now or the 7 Evils will win the battle which would be catastrophic for our universe.

The StarChilds are unique, talented, spiritual artists on all levels. Born creative and not their first time on earth. They are outstanding in performing arts. They are strong subjects for the ET's, Elves and other mythical characters. They have strong senses and are empaths. People are drawn to their energy all the time and are compelled to come up and speak to them, that is because those around them can receive messages from angels to give to a StarChild to help guide them in their mission.

They are all born with a special gift/powers. Many of them are unaware of who they are until they experience a supernatural moment or event that will awaken them. StarChilds can sense each other and connect in the most unexpected ways. Once they connect their powers become stronger. They begin to connect the dots. The more they connect the stronger they become both as individuals and as a team.

They all have gifts, some are more powerful than others depending on how many times they have lived on earth. SaHeaven and a few other StarChilds including Tina, Zeek, Tania, & Elad powers are unlike any others. Many StarChilds can enter other realms and worlds but never all of them. SaHeaven was able to enter all 7 Realms of Heaven and Hell. She is the most wanted by the 7 Evils and also the one they fear. If she can enter 7 realms of hell she would have to really fight to keep her soul. She could become just as evil and powerful as the most evil demon and 5 times as strong if pushed to her limit. Those scientists who know the truth of who she really is, must keep her strong and out of the hands of those that are taken by Jumpers. It takes a lot to push her to full anger, but DON'T PISS HER OFF!

OPENING QUESTIONS

Can a human be in 2 places at the same time? What about 7 places yet still be one soul, perhaps other levels of one person, one soul? Can a human soul become hijacked and imprisoned from within, maybe someone high on drugs or drunk from alcohol, not in full control, can open themselves up to be hijacked by something dark and demonic, or of the light... like in a Baptist Church, when a holy spirit enters the body while deep in prayer. It takes over your body for a brief moment. Your tongue becomes theirs, and a unknown language comes from you, and you are not even aware or have no control over you. If that holy spirit can get in, hack your soul. What else can?

Have you seen Chariots from the Cosmos?

Is it a altered reality inbedded in the mass that we are alone in this endless UNIVERSE?
Is it premitive arrogance to assume that? Perhaps we are AWAKENING from assuming we are woke. Are their glitches in the matrix or are we a matrix in a glitch?

Are you suspended in thought now?

(Zaina Juliette)

The Back Story

The Back Story Question is, who is really behind this epic evil plot.

Some are afraid of the Devils demon body jumpers and feel they will defeat SaHeaven and ambush her soul they would then own the power. They will have her blood. They are her vampires.

If Good wins over evil, Saheaven and the StarChilds will have victory over Lucifer and rid the Earth and other times and realms of evil within the universe. Neither wanted to take the chance of SaHeaven becoming globally famous due to their inner fears, although her talent would take her there.

Because of her mother Dianne, and the secret gatherings they are aware of who SaHeaven really is no truth was spoken.

There was one other like her, HE became globally famous. The fans were drawn to him. He had the power. The world knew him He was very close to "Victory" Before his last world tour planned to awaken the mass and drown evil. The jumpers had him silenced forever, well, so they thought.

His soul met Saheaven in another Realm. HE passed her the torch and said, "you must complete the DESTINEY as you are the ST7R. They will try to stop you from all levels. You must continue the music. among a small chosen few on both sides of good and evil, righteousness and wickedness. Those secrets stretch beyond earth as we know it. Those few know of the power of frequencies. That is why they are who they are.

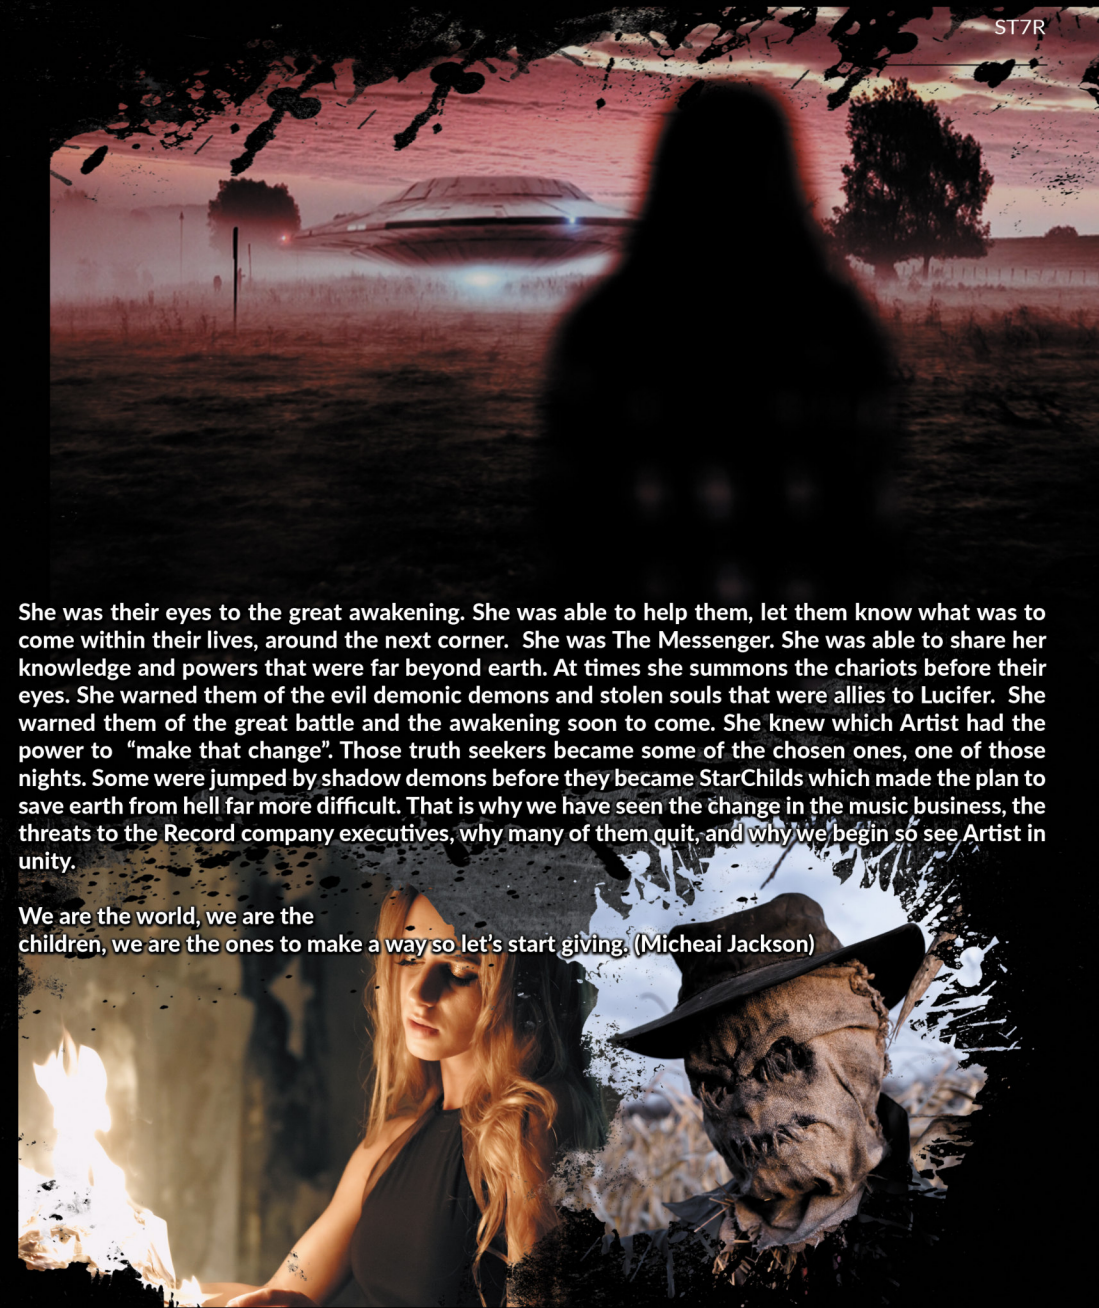

Zaina says, "The music business is like a small beautiful island, but that island is surrounded by dark red waters filled with sharks.

Those sharks swim constantly around this island. In order to get to that island you have to swim through all that dark, hazy shark invested waters to get there. Survival is slim."

The core of the music business is deeper than entertainment. There are hidden secrets shared among a small chosen few on both sides of good and evil, righteousness and wickedness. Those secrets stretch beyond earth as we know it. Those few know of the power of frequencies. That is why they are who they are.

SaHeaven was born into a family of Creole entertainers. This family was special. They were also a target for many reasons. Those reasons were their communication with beings from other worlds, musical gifts, dealings with Voodoo priest, foresight, and other phenomenons. They all knew that SaHeaven would someday lead the battle. Her powers were visible as an infant. The truth is she has double Hybrid blood mixed with the blood of another chosen one who was already famous around the world and would grow to have massive followers. His mission was to heal the world, and make it a better place.

Dianne soon moved to California, SaHeaven was born into a home that was always a music studio, rehearsal place, many gatherings, parties, and cookouts. The neighbors just seen big and small events. But what was really going on beneath it all. SaHevens mother Dianne was guiding them, she was a StarChild.

She was their eyes to the great awakening. She was able to help them, let them know what was to come within their lives, around the next corner. She was The Messenger. She was able to share her knowledge and powers that were far beyond earth. At times she summons the chariots before their eyes. She warned them of the evil demonic demons and stolen souls that were allies to Lucifer. She warned them of the great battle and the awakening soon to come. She knew which Artist had the power to "make that change". Those truth seekers became some of the chosen ones, one of those nights. Some were jumped by shadow demons before they became StarChilds which made the plan to save earth from hell far more difficult. That is why we have seen the change in the music business, the threats to the Record company executives, why many of them quit, and why we begin to see Artist in unity.

We are the world, we are the children, we are the ones to make a way so let's start giving. (Micheai Jackson)

ZAINA, THE WARRIOR STAR-CHILD

One girl, 200 stories of a life of strange encounters, phenomenons, Voodoo spells, astral projection, foresight, telepathy, memories of past lives, time travel and the musical frequencies which surrounds the entire series of these stories.

The sacred writings, compositions, and childhood drawings that have the hidden prophesies within them. All inside the Diary of Zaina Juliette.

Her heroic struggle between being what one would call normal, and being her true self. All this is going on one level as she deals with normality in her daily life.

A battle to set out for her mission as an entertainer to help save the earth. Zaina's human struggle as a songstress of healing frequencies becomes more intense. Will she be able to swim out of the quicksand of whats holding her down. Is she sinking deeper?

The unseen forces can possess others to aid in their agenda to stop the chosen-ones, more-so to stop what Zaina was destined for. All of her encounters and battles that are connected in this realm and beyond, are told in her diary of songs.

THE AWAKENING WILL BEGIN.

But can she, Zaina Juliette connect the dots? With the Tribe that compose the musical frequencies in her mind, and the guidance of another star-child, Tania Heaven, from across the seas, perhaps there is a chance. The two of them ride the sea-saw on the border of reality that one can see and the other reality in the spiritual realm, that one can not see.

One girls story that follows her continuous journey from an adolescent child until this moment today. Her extraordinary passion of the performing arts, as a theatrical Actress, a singer, dancer, writer, musician. Also gifted in sketching the most haunting and elaborate drawings of what's to come and what was beyond what is. Her mindset then, is the same as now and never strayed.

From childhood, consistently performing, in talent shows, musicals, plays, as a student director, behind the camera, in front of the camera... Her passion was so intense, she was submerged in it beyond her years. Everyone called her an old soul, a child born in the wrong era. Perhaps she was living in other eras before this one. Her life was inside a theater, literally, at times cuddled in a sleeping bag, sleeping under the stages because she rehearsed long hours into the night always on more than one production.

This was her normal. Even in her home. It was her mission, and her escape, her sanity, normality. Although she loves the arts, it was the only way to deal with her series of secrets. Those secrets kept growing, all is written in her sacred mysterious Diary. Although she loves the arts, it was the only way to deal with her series of secrets. They do not know that there are on other layers of themselves, they are not allowed to know, they are not ready. But Zaina is a StarChild. She sees all levels and parallel worlds. Those worlds cross paths. The chosen ones on earth are close to the good and evil entities crossing over and using humans on this realm to stop any StarChild's from their secret mission. A mission from what one would call an Angel.

Zaina Juliette

THERE IS NO STOPPING ME, I keep it moving,
I am in my own lane, no need to keep switching lanes to try and pass others, I do not care if they are speeding to get to the red light. I stay within this lane and focus, go with the flow within my soul,
keep these eyes on the road,
exploring new lands as I stay on my plan,
Do not stop moving until I get there and those who really believed in me, the very few, with no
agenda are right here beside me on my road trip, we take turns driving. Made a few new friends that also see the vision, they have joined us on our journey. With the help of the small team, all driving, no roadblocks, no detours.
We are almost there, just a few more miles!
YES!!! We have arrived! Girl Power Concert Tour, "The Awakening"

The frequencies are the magic in the music.
The music soothes the pain and tames the resurrection.

REAL TALK: FROM AN INTERVIEW WITH ZAINA JULIETTE

As an Artist and being in this business as an entertainer, you can run into so many roadblocks, people that feel you are in competition with them or others who claim to know or work for executives that feel you are in competition with their Artist. Some of those individuals will sign you to a deal just so your talent and creations can sit on a shelf so that your music will not be out on the market during the time frame of their Artist music released. This game is played so that you will not be their Artist competitor. I have seen it all and experienced it. That is a movie script in itself.

So as an Artist, I have learned to do most everything myself, and I am still learning. I had to do this so that no one can hold me back. I had to self-promote myself without a budget, create my own shows without a budget, raising the money myself along with my sister.

There are naysayers and so-called music producers that were like vampires, give them all your savings and they will in return do this and do that but in the end, they do nothing at all but take your money. Since those things happened to me, I've learned what all is required and taught myself to do it myself. Write and record my music, Film and edit my videos, Create my brand, my sound, my style, choreograph my shows, produce my music, produce my TV Show and promote my Artistry the best of my ability. Now no one will dangling carrots in front of me. I refuse to sell my soul to reach my goals. Now it's time. I have done what needs to be done to take it to the next level. All self promoted. If I can do it with nothing, imagine what I can do with the right backers and team." Those who believe in me. There is no limit, there is no stopping The Z'

A woman with long, wavy hair, wearing a dark jacket, stands on the left side of the frame, looking upwards. She is positioned in front of a large, dark stone wall. The wall features a prominent, light-colored Greek key (meander) pattern. In the center of the wall, the words "TO SAVE EARTH" are carved in large, bold, block letters. The letters are filled with a rough, textured material, possibly concrete or stone, and are set against a dark background. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the woman's hair and the texture of the wall and letters.
